C. S. BONACKER WINS GOLF CUP

PENSACOLIAN GOES TO TAMPA, PLAYS A FEW GAMES OF GOLF AND THEN WINS CUP IN MATCH.

C. S. Bonacker, of this city, was the winner of a fine cup at Tampa when he entered a golf tournament in that city on Feb. 22nd, and his friends in Pensacola are proud of the record he made in that city.

Mr. Bonacker did not profess to be a golf player when he recently went to Tampa to visit his brothers, and had played only a few games there when he entered the tournament. Being allowed a good handicap he won the cup with apparent ease.

C. V. RIDDELL TO TEACH THE VIOLIN

Charles Victor Riddell has been appointed instructor on the violin at the Pensacola School of Music. He is a native of Columbus, Ohio, and commenced his musical studies there under Prof. Eberling.

During his two years' residence in Pensacola Mr. Riddell has proved himself to be a master of his instrument, has made a wide circle of friends, and it is felt that his appointment as violin teacher at the school of music will meet with much approval.

PURE MILK AND CLEAN DELIVERY

PENSACOLA CREAM AND MILK DEPOT ADOPTS SANITARY METHODS AND WILL USE WHITE DRIVERS IN WHITE UNIFORMS.

To Our Customers:

We, the undersigned dairymen selling milk in Pensacola, take this means of announcing to the public in general and to our customers in particular that, beginning Saturday, March 1, we have arranged to deliver our milk supply to the Pensacola Cream and Milk Depot and that the latter will deliver the milk to you.

This arrangement we think will be more satisfactory both to you and to us. It will give you a better service than we have been able to give you and will, by saving the expense and time for distribution, enable us to give more attention to our dairies themselves.

We trust that you will accord the Pensacola Cream and Milk Depot the same patronage that you have given us and we can assure you the same courteous treatment and a better service than we have been able to give you. Any favors shown the Pensacola Cream and Milk Depot will be appreciated by us.

To the Public:

We have organized the Pensacola Cream and Milk Depot with the purpose of giving the milk consumers of Pensacola a better grade of milk and a better delivery service.

We will be able to do this by reason of the fact that the milk will be uniformly tested, aerated, and handled in a modern, scientific and sanitary manner, and will be delivered to you from a central depot, at any time of the day, by drivers in white uniforms whose first object will be cleanliness. No more dirty bottles will be filled from the street, but all bottles will be washed and sterilized at the Depot before being sent out.

One of our objects will be prompt and regular service, and any failure to receive milk when you desire it should be promptly telephoned to our office and your order will be given immediate delivery.

We hope that we may receive the continued patronage of the present patrons of the above dairymen and we want new patrons as well. We are going to try to please you and when we fail to do so, we ask you to notify us at once, for we want to merit and hold your patronage.

Pensacola Cream and Milk Depot.

FINDS AN OLD 2-CENT STAMP

A. S. EDWARDS, WHILE CLEARING DESK, DIGS UP STAMPED ENVELOPE OF YEAR 1888.

An old postage stamp of the "vintage of '88" which was put in storage in that year by N. B. Cook, supervisor of public instruction for many years, was found yesterday by the new incumbent, A. S. Edwards, as he was going through the desks and cleaning them of things not needed. The old stamp was real "bonded warehouse," too. At least it was on an old bond paper envelope. The envelope was addressed to Adolphus Duerber, 2422 Spring avenue, St. Louis, Missouri. It had been sent Mr. Cook

The Westminster Kennel club's dog show, which has just been held in New York, brought out some very dainty exhibitors. Perhaps the daintiest were Little Miss Alice B. Tainter, who exhibited a Boston terrier, and Miss Constance Regan, owner of the prize Pekinese, "La Tee of Monorio."

The great surprise of the exhibition came when "Strathay Prince Albert," an unknown English bull dog owned by A. H. Stewart, of Chicago, was awarded the blue ribbon.

Several millionaires with very expensive dogs were among the exhibitors. They were greatly disappointed when the Chicago man's canine carried off first honors. Strathay, the winner, was bred by Edselton of England, a well-known breeder of bull dogs. He is the perfection of brute force and strength.

for a reply and Mr. Cook had never used it. The stamp bears the head of Washington and the wording "United States Postage, Two Cents."

One of the largest audiences of the season greeted that inimitable melodramatic farce, "Officer 666," presented at the opera house last evening. There was not a dull moment from the rise of the curtain in the first act until the final drop in the third. That the audience enjoyed the ludicrous situations which were so cleverly enacted was attested by the vociferous applause throughout the entire performance. Suffice it to say that each character was admirably sustained, the cast being composed of performers of unusual ability and merit and each entered into the spirit of the play with that zest and enthusiasm that is regaling. The large audience thoroughly enjoyed the performance from beginning to end, realizing that they had laughed enough for one night at least.

The story of "Officer 666" is all about a gentlemanly burglar who is a student of art as well. His particular hobby is old paintings. When the play opens he is found to be negotiating one of his famous coups and has chosen for his base of operations the home of Travers Gladwin, a rich New Yorker, absent on a tour of the world. Returning unexpectedly, the young millionaire discovers that the picture gallery has been masquerading as the owner of his house in upper Fifth avenue, and is about to make his "get-away" with a particularly valuable lot of art objects as a part of his impedimenta. It is around these incidents that Augustus MacHugh has woven his play, which is filled with dramatic surprises and clean fun that is particularly appealing to Americans of the present day.

How this young millionaire outwits this particular "Raffles" by borrowing the uniform of a police officer and appearing as "Officer 666," how in doing so he meets the burglar's sweetheart, a society girl who thinks he is a millionaire, and who is arrested as the cook's accomplice, and how, thrilled by the charm of her personality, the sure enough millionaire falls in love with her at first sight and saves her from the thief, aided and abetted by the real "Officer 666," and how the thief, though finally trapped, is still triumphant, is left to the telling of the players who unfold the story.

"Officer 666" is an original play and its success is all the more gratifying because of the fact that it is purely American from start to finish.

"The Typhoon."

Mr. Walker Whiteside, whose characterization of the dreamy and poetic young Hebrew in Zangwill's powerful play, "The Melting Pot," created such a deep impression, will be seen in a character which offers a striking contrast to his previous impersonation when he appears here in "The Typhoon" at the opera house on Monday, March 3rd.

In this play he enacts the part of a young Japanese nobleman, and the leading critics of New York and Chicago have pronounced it to be the most intimate and veracious study of an oriental ever presented on the American stage.

Look! To the first lady buying $2 worth Saturday morning at Brawner-Riera Big Sale—if your shoe has a hole in it, show it to the sale manager and he will give you a nice pair free. Sure some excitement!

Hard Luck.

Mrs. Brophy lived in front of the tenement house and Mrs. Dugan occupied rooms in the rear of the building. Mrs. Brophy met Mrs. Dugan in the hall and said:

"Them Turks is killin' Christians and draggin' them through the streets."

"Ye don't tell me," exclaimed Mrs. Dugan. "That's the devil of livin' in the rear. I never see nothin'!"

ENTERTAINMENT IS POSTPONED

The entertainment which was to have been given at the Knox Presbyterian church tonight, has been postponed, owing to the death of Mrs. Morey, until next Friday night.

POPULATION NOT 35,000

SECRETARY HENDERSON CALLS ATTENTION TO AN ERROR WHICH PUT IT AT THAT FIGURE.

Secretary Leland J. Henderson, of the Pensacola Commercial Association, has sent the following communication to the Journal, calling attention to an error regarding the population of the city, which seems to be nearer 30,000 than 35,000. The letter:

I notice that The Journal of Thursday morning, in commenting on the Polk's directory, seem to have fallen into an error with regard to the population of the city, as shown by the directory.

In the preface of the directory is found this statement: "In 1912, the estimated population, with suburbs, is 29,610, according to this directory." The directory indicates that that is the total population, including women and children, and not that the children were left out in the estimate. The directory contains something less than 12,000 names; the estimated population is obtained by multiplying this number by 2 1/2, giving a total population for the city and suburbs, of 29,610.

The 1911 directory contained 11,239 names, which indicated a population of 28,073, indicating an increase in the population of 1,437, or 5 per cent in two years. This is a favorable increase when it is considered that during this period several thousand people left the city and suburbs, because of the closing of the navy yard.
